

Ed Hincken

Ed was the Facilities Manager at Chanticleer from 1998 to 2018. In that role he contributed creatively to the planning and design of many garden features, including the Visitor Services Pavilion at the garden's front entrance, the Asian Woods restrooms, the Greenhouses, and the Fallen Tree Bridge in Bell's Woodland. He is skilled in decorative painting and faux finishes and during his time at Chanticleer was responsible for the finishes on all furniture, plant list boxes, and buildings. Ed retired in 2018 and now enjoys traveling and spending time with family and friends.
