

Marriage Proposals at Chanticleer: Frequently Asked Questions

Can I propose at Chanticleer?

Yes. We are honored that you're considering Chanticleer for such a special moment.

We welcome informal marriage proposals that are small, intimate, and low-key and that do not interfere with the experience of other guests.

We strongly recommend visiting Chanticleer before your planned proposal so you can become familiar with the garden and choose a location that feels right for you.

Do I need to make a reservation for my proposal?

No special reservation is required for an informal proposal. Chanticleer does not reserve specific garden areas or guarantee private spaces.

Regular admission rates apply, and parking reservations are required during peak visiting times. Reservations can be made online through our Plan Your Visit page.

Can I decorate the space or arrange a surprise setup?

No. To preserve the garden and ensure all guests enjoy their visit, we do not allow decorations, arches, candles, flower petals, balloons, signs, furniture, or other proposal setups.

No. To preserve the garden and ensure that all guests can enjoy their visit, we do not allow proposal setups or decorations, including arches, candles, flower petals, balloons, signs, furniture, or other special arrangements.

Proposals should take place naturally within the garden as part of a regular visit.

May I bring flowers?

No. Outside flowers are not permitted at Chanticleer.

Can we celebrate with a picnic after the proposal?

Yes. Picnics are welcome, provided they follow Chanticleer's regular picnic guidelines. Please review our Picnic Guidelines before your visit.

Can I hire a photographer?

Casual, informal photography is welcome.

Professional engagement photography, posed photo shoots, and drones are not permitted. Please review our Photography Guidelines before your visit.

Can Chanticleer help coordinate my proposal?

While we're honored you've chosen Chanticleer, we are unable to reserve garden locations, provide staff assistance, or accommodate special requests.

We strongly recommend visiting Chanticleer before your planned proposal so you can become familiar with the garden and plan a simple, personal moment that fits naturally into your visit.

What if I have questions?

Please call 610-687-4163 ext. 114 if you have questions before making your plans.

Thank you for considering Chanticleer as the setting for such a meaningful moment. We look forward to welcoming you for a memorable visit.
